11. Effect of COVID 19

The pandemic of coronavirus ("COVID-19") has spread across the world rapidly. Therefore, it is challenging now, to predict the full extent and duration of its business and economic impact. The pandemic spread is causing disruption and uncertainties to the economic, operations and business activities. The fiscal and monetary authorities, both domestic and international, have announced various support measures across the globe to counter possible adverse implications.

The spread of COVID 19 pandemic may impact the operations of the Group for short-term. The possible short-term impact will not change in management's going concern assessment or business strategy.

Moreover, the operations of the Group are partially concentrated in economies that are relatively dependent on the price of crude oil. The uncertainties caused by COVID-19 and the volatility in crude oil prices required the management of the Group to update its assumptions used for the determination of expected credit losses as at 30 September 2021. Certain changes have been incorporated in the calculation of expected credit losses to reflect the observable current macro-economic factors and future information.

Management believes that the impacts of the above on the expected credit losses of its financial assets are minimal and limited, as those financial assets are related to highly rated banks and operated in the state of Qatar. Management expects the demand for its products will not be impacted and it will be higher in the future periods. In addition to that, and based on the management's assessment, the carrying value of non-financial assets will not be impacted significantly.

The market remains volatile, and the recorded balances are sensitive to the market fluctuations. Management of the Group will continuously and closely monitor the economy and the ongoing situation for any downside risks. The Management has considered the potential impacts of the current economic volatility in determining the reported amounts of the Group's financial and non-financial assets as at 30 September 2021, and assessed the impacts are very limited with positive indications.
